

The Little ant

There is a little, little ant
Marching all over my nose
And I'm scratching my nose
And I'm scratching my nose
My nose, my nose, my nose

You're looking for a yellow rose
Little ant this is my nose
You're looking for a yellow rose
Go away! This is my nose

There is a little, little ant
Marching all over my clean hair
And I'm looking for him in my hair
And I'm looking for him in my hair
My hair, my hair, my hair

It isn't a sugary pear
Little ant this is my hair
You are looking for a yellow rose
Go away!! This is my nose

There is a little, little ant
Marching all over my eyes
And I'm rubbing my eyes
And I'm rubbing my eyes
My eyes, my eyes, my eyes

You are looking for a peach pie
Little ant these are my eyes
It isn't a sugary pear

Little ant this is my hair
You are looking for a yellow rose
Go away!! This is my nose

There is a little, little ant
Marching all over my ears
And I'm scratching my ears
And I'm scratching my ears
My ears, my ears, my ears

[: Go away! Disappear!
Little ant, these are my ears:]
You are looking for a peach pie

Little ant these are my eyes
It isn't a sugary pear
Little ant this is my hair
You are looking for a yellow rose
Go away!! This is my nose

There is a little, little ant
Marching all over my mouth
I'm scratching my mouth
I'm scratching my mouth
My mouth, my mouth, my mouth

[: This isn't a road south
Little ant this is my mouth:]
Go away! Disappear!

Little ant these are my eyes
